

Information for the site

On March 16, 2022 there within the framework of the work of the chair “Library study and bibliography” of National library of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the form of dual education is carried out the master-class by the librarian, candidate of science (history) Krivkov Andrie Leonidovich by the theme: “The library business in the KASSR and the establishment of National library (1918-1931)” for the students of the 2-nd and 3-rd courses of the Russian department of the Kazakh national women’s pedagogical university. The students listened to the interesting and useful information, they became acquainted with many facts and data from the history of the libraries of that period. There was narrated the conception of development of the generally accessible libraries of Soviet Kazakhstan in the 20-30-ss of the XX-th century. There are highlighted such epochs of the library construction like the creation and activity of the Narkompros of the KASSR, the elaboration and acceptance of the first legislative acts in the sphere of librarianship, the work of the Central regional library in Kyzylorda city and the creation of the State public library in Almaty city.